Awards of up to $10,000 are given to support the recording and preservation of Aboriginal oral history and to share expertise in the area of oral history recording. The Trustees of the Rona Tranby Trust assess applications on their merits.

The Rona Tranby Award and Collection (ABN: 39 099 699 309) was established in 1991. It is funded from a bequest in the Will of Thomas Rona and administered by the Rona Tranby Trust. The Trust has supported many projects and considers each to be a significant legacy for all Australians.
